SOTC MEMBERSHIP POLICIES: A prospective member must have trained a dog with SOTC for at least one session, or must have earned an obedience title on a dog. Membership application must be accompanied by the payment of the year's dues and will be accepted at the third meeting that the prospective member attends. These three (3) required meetings must be within a 12-month period and may only include one (1) Awards Party. At the prospective member's 4th meeting, the membership application will be read to the general membership. At his/her 5th meeting, the applicant will be introduced briefly. Then the membership present will vote on the application. Husbands and wives must apply and be voted upon separately. Junior memberships are available to those 8-16 years of age. Prospective junior members need attend only three (3) meetings, or may be required to participate in up to three club activities in lieu of meeting attendance; and will be voted on at their 1st meeting. Associate membership is available to those members who, for reasons of health, lack of a dog or distance from the club, are no longer able to regularly participate in training. Junior, Associate, and Honorary members may not vote or hold office. Membership dues for those applying after the 1st of July will be one-half the regular fee for the membership period from July 1 through December 31. Checks should be made payable to SOTC and should be submitted with the application to the Membership chairperson.
