A prospective member must have trained a dog with SOTC for at least one session, or must have earned an obedience title on a dog. Membership application must be accompanied by the payment of the year's dues and will be accepted at the third meeting that the prospective member attends. The three required meetings must be within a 12-month period and may only include one (1) Awards party. At the 4th meeting, the membership application will be read to the general membership, providing the applicant is present. At the 5th meeting that the prospective member attends, the application will be read again. Then, the membership will vote on the application. Husbands and wives must apply and be voted upon separately. Junior memberships are available to those 18 and under. Junior members need to attend only 2 meetings and will be read at the 2nd meeting they attend. At the 3rd meeting that they attend, they will be voted on. Associate membership is available to those members who, for reasons of health, lack of a dog or distance from the club, are no longer able to regularly participate in training. Junior Associate and Honorary members may not vote or hold office. Membership dues for those applying after the 1st of July will be $12.50 for the membership period from July 1 through December 31. Checks should be made payable to SOTC and be submitted with the application to the membership chairperson.
